Sanderson

Renowned for hand-drawn designs and English garden palettes, Sanderson brings a timeless and easy elegance to modern family life and offers the warmest of welcomes.

Sanderson's Art of the Garden collection beautifully captures the evolution of garden and landscape design from the Persian Gardens of 500BC to the Baroque Gardens of the 17th Century and beyond, taking you on an enchanting journey through time.

For centuries, many artists have travelled the world recreating the magnificence of grand estate gardens into watercolours and botanical drawings. Combining history with the modern day, Art of the Garden takes its inspiration from these artworks and translates elements of these spectacular settings into a collection of designs that embody the British love affair with horticulture.

Designed by hand in the Sanderson studio, the collection comprises Art of the Garden fabrics and wallpapers, which are complemented by the delicate Palm Grove embroideries and Moorbank, a tactile plain. The rich, botanical colours within the Sanderson Paint range, effortlessly harmonise with this captivating collection.
